The Money so obtained under this act shall be deposited in the Treasury or in the Bank (in St. Louis) to the credit of the Treasurer.

And Whereas also by an act of the General Assembly aforesaid, entitled "an act supplemental to the act passed at this Session of the General Assembly, entitled "an act to issue State bonds to pay the State debt" approved February 16th 1841, it is made the duty of the Governor of this State to execute and deliver to the Bank of the State of Missouri, the bonds of the State to the amount of Twelve thousand dollars the proceeds of which shall be applied and appropriated to pay for work done or to be done on the Capitol of the State.

Each of these last named bonds will be for five hundred dollars, payable in Gold and Silver, at the City of Jefferson, at the Bank of the State of Missouri, or at any City in the United States, as may be agreed upon at the time of negotiation: shall be payable ten years after date, but redeemable five years after date, and bear interest at the rate of not exceeding Seven per cent per year, payable semiannually, at such place as shall be agreed upon.

Now therefore, in order that this Department may ascertain what rate of interest said bonds shall bear will be received until the first day of May next, at this Department, or at the Bank of the State of Missouri, in St. Louis, for the purchase of said bonds or any part thereof, on the terms above prescribed, and purchasers will distinctly state in their proposals, at what rate of interest and where payable, they will take the said bonds or any part thereof issued in conformity with the foregoing act

In testimony whereof I Thomas Reynolds, Governor of the State of Missouri have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this Eighth day of March in the year of our Lord, one thousand Eight hundred and forty one, and of this State the twenty first.

A Proclamation

By the Governor of the State of Missouri

Whereas it is considered right and proper, that we thankfully acknowledge the goodness of God, manifested in the preservation of our lives, our civil and religious liberties, and our Republican institutions, and for every blessing, temporal and spiritual, which we enjoy. And whereas the protection of the State from invasion, insurrection and civil commotion, and the Citizen from pestilence and plague, equally demands a return of thanks to Him, whose arm alone can bring this protection.

Now therefore, under a full sense of obligation and duty, and in accordance with the request of various religious denominations. I Thomas Reynolds, Governor of the State of Missouri, do by this my proclamation recommend to the people of this State, that, without distinction of sect, denomination or creed, they observe this day, the thirtieth day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his favors bestowed to us nationally, and individually.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri. Done at the City of Jefferson this sixteenth day of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty three and of the Independence of the United States the sixty seventh.
